

WYALUSING CAMPING CHECKLIST

CLOTHING/PERSONAL ITEMS

- Sturdy footwear suitable for rough, possibly muddy trails
- Layers to accommodate both warm and cool weather (t-shirt, hoodie/hat, warm vest, jacket, long pants, light gloves). Mid-May can be chilly, especially early morning and in the evening!!
- Rain jacket/poncho (inexpensive plastic ponchos will keep you relatively dry and will go over a jacket/backpack)
- Long underwear or pajamas for sleeping. A warm hat will keep you warm while sleeping.
- Towels, soap, shampoo, washcloths, and toiletries
- Hat for sun and bug protection
- Flashlight and/or headlamp
- Instruments and singing voice!

FOOD

- Friday evening – Bring your own food to grill and eat; if you want, bring a dish to share too!
- Saturday breakfast, lunch, dinner provided. Bring your own snacks! If you have strict dietary restrictions, bring something to eat as a back-up in case the menu doesn't serve you well. We will try to accommodate special diets as best we can, while cooking for a crowd.
- Sunday morning brunch provided. Pack-your-own lunch will be available in the morning or bring your own snacks for lunch or during activities.
- Camping snacks and treats - personal.
- Tupperware containers for the Sunday pack-your-own lunch and any meal leftovers
- Drinks and beverages. Alcoholic drinks are allowed at the park, but use in moderation. Alcoholic drinks not provided.
- Fridges & coolers with ice packs for your food (we can always refreeze ice packs if needed)

GEAR

Tenting: If you're tenting, you know what you need! Don't forget firewood!

Cabins: Bring sheets & blankets or sleeping bags / towels / toiletries / sandals for shower (cabins have bunks, mattresses, sinks, toilets, showers, but you'll need to bring everything else).

Sleeping pads from home were also a nice addition to the bunk bed mattresses for extra support - some people used 2 mattresses as well.

Fans were a favorite last year for the warm weather and white noise!

Bring warm or cool sleeping gear - it could go either way!

Face masks & sanitizer (for close contact indoors)

Camera, binoculars. The park is beautiful, with scenic overlooks.

Bikes, scooters, etc. (optional) The park is large; you may find them fun and useful. There are some hills.

Games - indoor & outdoor (bring your "bags" or corn hole game if you can)

Canoeing: May be available to rent; life jackets that fit, paddles, dry bags.

First aid kit

Camp chairs to sit on outdoors

Hammocks for trees

Pick up a map of the park at park entrance

Sunscreen, bug repellent

Backpack or fanny pack for trail items

GROUP COOKING

See Jacob's photos for pots and pans for cooking. If your cooking team needs something special, bring it along.

Commercial kitchen with large stove, large refrigerator, and commercial dishwasher is provided. Ask for volunteers to help set tables, bus tables, load dishwasher, clean up floor, etc.

Dave Ford will purchase firewood locally for communal campfires for Friday & Saturday evenings.
